

ANNEX TO THE RULES OF TAB COST OF ARBITRATION

A. Admission fees and case registration

The submission of the request for arbitration gives rise to the payment of an admission fee, which varies according to the amount in dispute:

- a) proceedings involving an amount under or equal to 16,000.00€ are exempt from admission fees;

In accordance with the provisions of Article 48 of the Rules, the admission fee shall form part of the arbitration costs.

B. Arbitrators' fees and TAB administration fees

The cost of an arbitration is determined taking into account the economic interest of the claims made by the parties.

In arbitrations involving amounts over 30,000,000.00€, the TAB may review and moderate the resulting administration fees by applying criteria other than the amount, such as complexity, workload, time, number of parties, number of arbitrators and other similar criteria.

Arbitrations of undetermined amount shall be processed following the ordinary procedure and shall be subject to an administration fee of 20,000.00€. Should the amount be determined during the arbitration process, the corresponding administration fees must be paid, if applicable.

Provision of funds for expenses derived from the processing of the case. This provision of funds includes notifications, digital media, the costs of evaluating the award and other costs that may arise. The amount to be paid for this concept will vary depending on the amount of the procedure:

- a) Procedures up to 16,000.00€: 300.00€,
- b) Procedures over 16,000.00€: 900.00€.

or that amount that the TAB may consider appropriate for the case in question. In the event that an arbitral tribunal is appointed, the provision of funds for expenses shall be 1,500.00€.

Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the cost of arbitration shall be paid by the claimant and the respondent in equal shares in accordance with the provisions of Article 9.4 and 9.5 of the Rules.

In the event that a higher interest or amount different from the claims stated in the request for arbitration is revealed, or a counterclaim is filed, the provisions of Article 9.7 and 9.8 of the Rules shall apply.

C. Plurality of respondents

In the event that the party against whom the arbitration is brought is formed by a plurality of respondents, an increase in the admission fees will be applicable in two cases:

- a) If there are more than ten (10) respondents, the admission fees shall be doubled.
- b) If there are more than fifty (50) respondents, the admission fees shall be tripled.

D. Third Party Intervener

The joinder in an arbitration of a third party as a party to the proceedings shall generate administration fees which shall be determined according to their intervention:

- a) If the third party has been called to the arbitration for lack of legitimation and does not formulate petitions, the fees will be those corresponding to the main claim, according to Section B of the Annex to the Rules;
- b) If the third party intervenes as a third party with a vested interest with knowledge of the arbitration, the applicable administration fees, according to Section B of this appendix, shall be those corresponding to the request made by the third party or, failing that, the same fees that the parties have paid for the arbitration proceedings.

E. Arbitral tribunal

In the event that an arbitral tribunal is appointed, the administration fees applicable to the arbitration shall be doubled. Unless otherwise agreed by the Institution, the fees of the chairperson of the arbitral tribunal shall be one third higher than the fees of the coarbitrators.

F. Stay of arbitration

The stay of the arbitration proceedings shall accrue a stay fee equal to the corresponding admission fees. Six months after the case has been stayed, the extension of the stay of the arbitration shall accrue new consecutive stay fees for equal periods of six months. Failure by the party requesting the stay to pay the accrued stay fees shall result in the case being closed without further ado.

If the arbitration is exempt from the payment of admission fees, the suspension fee shall be 20% of the arbitration administration fees and shall apply under the same terms as those set out in the preceding paragraph.

G. Cost of early closing of the file

In the event that the arbitration is not carried out in full and the file is closed at any procedural stage prior to the issuance of the award, a cost for the closing of the file shall be accrued, according to the following phases:

From the submission of the request for arbitration until the period for responding to it expires, the cost of closing the case is included in the admission fee paid at the commencement, except for cases that are exempt from paying admission fees due to the amount involved, in which case the cost of closing the case shall be 30% of the administration fees applicable to the arbitration, with the minimum cost of closing the case being 300.00€.

If the closing of the case is requested after the answer to the request for arbitration but before the opening hearing is held or the first procedural order is issued, the cost of closing the case will be 20% of the administration fees applicable to the arbitration.

If the closing of the case is requested once the opening hearing has been held or the first procedural order has been issued, a scale of accrual is established depending on the procedural stage of the arbitration case. The percentages of accrual of cost for closing the arbitration case within this stage are determined in the following table:

Procedural stage of the filing	Applicable percentage
After the opening hearing	30%
Within the pleading stage	40%
Within the evidence stage	50%
Within the taking of evidence or conclusions stage	70%
Up to the rendering of the award / award by consent	90%

Taking into account the complexity and the workload involved in the arbitration process, the TAB may modify, based on the circumstances of the case and with reasons given, the percentages established in the table above.

The cost of closing the case shall be borne by the party commencing the proceedings, regardless of what the parties agree regarding the cost of the arbitration. However, when the closing of the case results from a settlement agreement between the parties and both parties have paid the full amount of the administration fees and provision of funds, the cost of closing the case shall be paid in half.

If the parties request the issuance of an award by consent and this occurs before the proceedings are concluded, in accordance with Article 39 of the Rules, an additional 20% will be added to the percentage to be applied to the administration fees. In the event that the request is made within the period for taking evidence or submitting conclusions, this 20% will be applied to the administrative fees already accrued according to the percentage of the case being closed. Only when the issuance of the award by consent is requested and occurs after the period for taking evidence or submitting conclusions has ended, 90% will be applied directly to the administrative fees.

H. Interim measures

1. Procedures for interim measures shall accrue new admission fees.
2. The TAB shall set the administration fees deriving from the interim measures. The TAB shall determine, depending on the circumstances of the case, whether the cost of the interim measures involves:
 - a) only the admission fees referred to in paragraph 1;
 - b) the applicable administration fees as established in Section B of the Annex to the Rules, if the requested measure has a determined amount of its own, or,
 - c) if the provisions of Section I concerning the emergency arbitrator apply.

I. Emergency arbitrator

Fees for administration and cost of the procedure:

1. The administration fees provided for in the Annex to the Rules shall not apply to the preliminary emergency measures procedure, with the exception of Sections J and K thereof.
2. For the substantiation of the measures, the applicant for the measure shall pay an amount of 9,000.00€ to cover the administration fees and expenses of the emergency arbitrator. Proof of payment of these fees must be provided with the request for the measures in accordance with the terms of Article 54.2 d).

The amount of the fees of the arbitrator shall be decided by the TAB according to the circumstances of the case.

3. At any time during the preliminary emergency measures procedure, the president of the TAB may decide, by means of a reasoned resolution, to increase the amount mentioned in the previous Section to a maximum of 18,000.00€, taking into consideration, among other things, the nature of the case, its complexity and the workload of the TAB and the emergency arbitrator. Failure to pay this increased administration fee within the time limit set by the TAB shall be deemed to be a withdrawal of the application for interim measures.

4. The order of the emergency arbitrator shall set the costs of the emergency measures proceedings, including the reasonable expenses incurred by the parties, and shall decide which of the parties shall pay them or in what proportion they shall be apportioned between them.
5. In the event that, once the application has been filed, the emergency measures procedure is terminated prematurely before the order is issued, the president of the TAB shall determine the amount to be reimbursed to the applicant, if any. In any case, the amount of 4,500.00€ for the TAB administration fee shall not be refundable in any case.

J. Challenge proceedings.

With regard to the administration fees and the cost of conducting the challenge proceedings, the TAB shall apply the preceding section on emergency arbitration by analogy.

K. Routing to arbitration service

The cost of the routing to arbitration service offered to parties who (a) do not have a TAB arbitration clause, (b) want to renew the agreed arbitration agreement, or (c) obtain accreditation of the attempt to resolve the conflict out of court, is 150.00€.

Should further meetings or subsequent arbitral activity be required due to an agreement to submit having been reached, the admission fees for commencement of arbitration proceedings and the corresponding administration fees and provision of funds shall be accrued in accordance with the provisions of these Rules.

L. Services of the Secretariat of the TAB

The cost of the services of the TAB Secretariat for certificates and testimonials will be 50.00€ plus the cost of photocopies and other expenses.

With regard to the deposit of amounts derived from the arbitrations administered by the TAB, each deposit of such amounts in one of the TAB accounts shall have a cost of 70.00€.

M. Valued Added Tax

All amounts, including the application fee and the administration and provision of funds fees requested, shall be subject to Value Added Tax.
